

Miss. Sreang Lalune is the champion of YLC (youth leadership challenge) in season 3 organized by Youth Council of Cambodia (YCC), supported by United States Agency for International Development (USAID) through International Republican Institute (IRI). The program is designed to promote young leaders in Cambodia to show their talent and capacity to publics and society. The reward for the winner is a study tour to USA for couple weeks including meeting with government, political leaders and congressmen in the United States of America.

Her study tour is called Leadership Development Training. Even her tour is conducted in quite a short time but it was very useful for her to know, and recognize how big the world is. During her tour she did not only get to know a powerful country but she has also changed her attitude and become more confident, study harder and she has stronger commitment to join social activities.

Prior to becoming a Champion of YLC, Lalune was a volunteer of YCC network (since 2007) in which capacity she used to join conference, radio talk show, forums, and many other social activities.

Lalune was born on November 06, 1987 in village through a Mekong River (Neak Tunle) in Kompong Cham province. She has grown up in a middle class family. She is currently studying Accounting in year 4 at National University of Management (NUM) and also a year-3 student at Environmental Department of Royal University of Phnom Penh (RUPP). Besides studying at Universities she is a member of the Executive Committee of OYG-CAM. Through her participation in social activities Lalune has also participated in some training such as Youth Participation in a Democracy (YCC), Leadership Development Training, and Foreign Direct Investment at the Institute of Management Sciences, Kampong Cham province.

In her free time, Lalune likes to join social work with OYG-CAM, participate in other activities which can make contribution to her country. She likes to share her own experience and ideas to friends and the next generation, reading newspapers, researching through internet and doing housework.

In the future, she wants to be the best lady that people will honor and think that Sreang Lalune is their hero.

Lalune with former US Ambassador to Cambodia
Josef A. Mesumeli